The gilded page of Hist'ry tells, of deeds which hero arms hath done And world-resounding pean swells, O'er bloody fields by warriors won, But nobler than the warrior brave A greater hero yet than he is the Fireman, who fights to save-The champion of humanity. Chorus-A blessing on each sturdy arm. And for each noble heart fresh joy,

God bless-God bless the fire boy.

The warrior 'mid the battle's roar. Follows where bright glory leads, His laurels thrive 'mid human gore, And mourning hearts record his deeds. The Firemen (God bless their names) Asks not reward-nor seeks applause. Yet thinks, a battling 'mid the flames, 'Tis in appealing sorrow's cause. Chorus—A blessing on each sturdy arm, &c.

EIGHTEEN YEARS A CAPTVIE AMONG Indians.—The Macoupia (Ill.) Statesman gives an account of a man named Jos. Barney, who made his escape in May last from the Flat Head Indians, in Oregon, after being in captivity for eighteen years. A man named John Robertson was taken captive at the same time. The account thus narrates what occured after they were taken to the camp of the Indians. "They were unbound and confined in a hut, where they were fed, but not allowed to escape. The chief offered them his two daughters if they would marry and remain with the tribe. Finding escape utterly impossible for the time bemarriage took place. The fruits of this marriage were two children, both of whom are still living, a daughter, 16, and a son, 14, both which he left with the tribe. Two years ago Robertson at- trated Catalogues forwarded by mail or otherwise tempted to escape, but was retaken, scalped and burned alive, leaving three children with the tribe. Seven years ago Barney attempted to escape, but was recaptured, and would have been put to made of varnished India Rubber, are already being death but for the interposition of his offered in the market; these purchasers should bear

In May last, during the absence of the chief, Barney made all the rest of the Indians drunk, and then escaped, and although pursued for several days, they failed to overtake him. He is 63 years of age, originally from France, but formerly lived in Otsego county, N. Y.

town, D. C. The estimate that is now accorded this preparation by the medical profession and by others competent to judge of its merits, may be seen in the fact that it has been prescribed by many of our most eminent Physicians in this country, and has attracted the attention of a celebrated profession of the Edinburg College, Scotland, by whom it has been successfully used in a career of an aggravated character.

The proprieter has been forced to make more exensive arrangements to meet the rapidly increasing demand for BEECH DROP.

VINCENNES, INDIANA, Oct. 3, 1864. J. L. Kidwell-Dear Sir: Some three months ago, through the agency of Col Smith Miller, our representation in Congress, I had purchased of you, for the use of my father in Scotland, one dozen Bottles ter from my brother, stating that the physician desires you to forward another dozen bottles. He thinks under its use the disease is arrested. I may add that my father has tried every physician of distinction in Scotland and England, including Professors of Edinburg and Collleges, without relief. The disease was of three years standing, began in the right cheek, which is partially consumed. He was a sufferer with constant pain, which has entirely left him.

This case will give your preparation a popularity in Britsin which no other medicine has. Direct to William Dick, Esq., Collydean, by Leslie Scotland, in care of Messrs. Penfoed, Clay & Co., Druggists, N. York, who will forward it.

JAMES DICK.

Mr. Flint is a man of great influence in his county, and will with pleasure communicate with any one in reference to his case.

CALLAWAY COUNTY, MISSOURI, July 13th, 1854. }
Dear Sir—With great pleasure I inform that your preparation of Beech Drop has accomplished for me what I thought beyond the reach of human agency. For the last twelve years I have been afflicted with Scrofula of a Cancerous form. So extensive was the ulcers and so horrible my appearance that my case became notorious with all the Faculty in this and the adjoining counties-in fact I had obtained the best medical aid in our State, without any abatement of the disease. Through a friend I procured a half dozen bottles of your Beech Drep, after using it, so perfect was the cure, that hundreds visited me. My desire is to benefit my fellow man; with that purpose I beg all afflicted with Scrofula in any form to use it. Enclosed you will find an order from some friends for the preparation. Very truly,
